

News

Vanderbilt, a provider of state-of-the-art security systems, has announced that its technology is being installed in the consortium of Italian banks Cooperativa Cooperativo (BCC). The Banca di Cesena and GATTEO Cooperative Credit S. Coop Banking work has already begun, benefiting from the specification of Vanderbilt's SPC5000 and SPC6000 control panels, which provide an effective integration of intrusion and access functionality.

